Adjustable display prevents neck and shoulder complaints

You can adapt the screen of the R-Go Flex Monitor Stand to any position. You can really set everything: height, left and right swivel, viewing angle and the vertical tilt. These options help prevent tension in your neck and shoulder muscles, enabling you to work longer and more comfortably.

- Space for your keyboard

The R-Go Flex Monitor Stand is stable and highly flexible. It has a parking lot for your laptop and keyboard.

- Non-tilting

The monitor stand is easy to move and is protected against tilting.
